2.9 FIRST AID

- 2.9.1 A First Aid kit must be present during all training. At the LHQ, it is sufficient to have one available in the Orderly Room. However, during Field training there must be one present at the HQ, and in the Field with the cadets. In the Field a stretcher must also be present. It is the responsibility of the OPI to ensure that the appropriate First Aid kits are available.
- 2.9.2 As well, it is the responsibility of the Exercise OPI to ensure that there is a qualified First Aider present. The OPI must ensure that all know this person, and that this person is in possession of, or has access to the First Aid Kit.
- 2.9.3 All injuries (however minor) will be reported to the First Aider for action. The First Aider will keep the Exercise OPI informed as necessary, as well as maintain a First Aid Log.
- 2.9.4 The Exercise OPI and/or First Aider will be in possession of CF98's at all times. In event of an injury, these will be filled out without delay. All Staff are to be aware of the proper use of a CF98.

2.10 CHANGE IN PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 2.10.1 All Personnel are expected to report any changes in personal information to the Administration Officer as necessary. i.e. phone number, postal address. This must be done to ensure the proper administration of the Squadron.

2.11 PARADE STATE

- 2.11.1 A Parade State will be filled out nightly by the duty desk under the guidance of the SWO, to be turned in to the Commanding Officer no later than (NLT) 1930hrs nightly.

2.12 PLANNED ABSENCES

- 2.12.1 If any Cadet is aware that they will be absent from regular Parade Nights for more than a week but less than three, they will inform the Administration Officer immediately. This will allow the Administration Officer to excuse them from training for the period to be missed.

Otherwise, the Cadet will be considered to be not in good standing and disciplinary action may result.

2.13 LEAVES OF ABSENCE

- 2.13.1 If a Cadet is aware that they will be absent from training for more than three weeks, they will inform the Administration Officer immediately. This will allow the Administration Officer, with the approval of the Commanding Officer, to excuse them from training for the period to be missed. Otherwise, the Cadet will be considered to be not in good standing and disciplinary action may result. As well, this period of time missed may result in lost opportunities such as Summer Courses and promotion.

2.14 CLASSROOM BEHAVIOR

- 2.14.1 As with any organization, the larger the number of students, or cadets in this case, the more difficult it becomes to manage the classroom.
- 2.14.2 Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated. Cadets that are disruptive in class will be removed from class and be required to discuss their behavior with one of the officer staff.
- 2.14.3 If a cadet continues to demonstrate disruptive behavior in class the cadet will be removed from class, the parents of the cadet will be phoned and the cadet will be sent home.
- 2.14.4 Repeated incidents where a cadet is sent home due to disruptive behavior may constitute means of dismissal from the squadron.
